Dear Families and Friends of the St Pius X Community,

Storm Damage
What a dramatic start to Term 2. They were such powerful storms and caused so much devastation. Our thoughts and prayers are with the many people, especially in the Hunter, who are still dealing with power and flooding issues. I hope you and your family and loved ones were spared injury and serious damage to property.

During last week we used multiple avenues to get communications out. Our school email was down but we did manage to get messages out via commercial radio, our Lion email link, our school website, Facebook and then eventually school email. Of course, none of these methods helped anyone without power. Thank you for your patience and support. Thanks for spreading messages about school closures & reopening where you were able to do so.

The only serious damage to the school has been the very large gum that is now sitting on top of Room 609 above Student Services. There were several other trees down, leaks in stairwell roofs and classrooms. I spent several hours with the Loss Assessor last Friday. Repair works should get underway soon.

The Parent/Teacher Interviews from last Thursday have been transferred to Thursday 7 May. Details over page.

ANZAC Day
We were at least blessed with a beautiful morning on which to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of ANZAC Day. The ANZAC Day service at Adamstown was packed. Many staff, students and parents from St Pius were in attendance and I know many others attended services in other venues.

Anzac Day is a day to remember and pay tribute to those who have fallen and those who suffered and still suffer from the effects of war. It is a day to remember the strength of the human spirit and the value of mateship. Indeed, we need not search for more than four words to embody the spirit of Anzac – courage, endurance, mateship and sacrifice.

Lest we forget.

Busy Term
Term 2 will be a very busy one for everyone. Week 4 is NAPLAN for Years 7 & 9 and the start of the Yr8 & 10 Semester 1 Exams. Week 5 is continuation of Yrs 8 & 10 Exams and the start of Yrs 7 & 9 Exams, which will continue into Week 6. Week 7 brings DioSounds. Week 10 sees two large groups of Year 10 students and teachers heading off to Vietnam and Borneo on their World Challenge Immersion Experience. Add to that the rest of the Assessment Program and various excursions, sporting events and other activities and we indeed have a busy time ahead. So, students, get organised and get into it! All the best for a safe, productive and enjoyable term.

Test Stress Article

Have a great week!

NAPLAN (National Assessment Program – Literacy and Numeracy)

This year NAPLAN will be held between Tuesday 12 May and Thursday 14 May with a catch up day on Friday 15 May. All students in Years 7 and 9 will participate.

Tuesday 12 May
Language Conventions test (Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar) and a separate Writing test.

Wednesday 13 May
Reading test

Thursday 14 May
Numeracy test (Number, Algebra, function and pattern; Chance and data; Measurement and Space).

The tests will be held in the morning with a break between tests on the Tuesday and Thursday. Both years will complete their tests in the class they normally have for Religious Studies. In the Numeracy tests students in both Years 7 and 9 will require the calculator they currently use at school.

Friday 15 May
A ‘catch-up’ day is scheduled for students who missed a test or were absent on a test day. Further details regarding exemptions and special provisions have been outlined in the letter sent home with the Interim Report. Additional information about NAPLAN can be found at:

Disability Provisions
NAPLAN testing for 2015 is scheduled from 12-14 May. The Board of Studies allows students who currently receive Disability Provisions for exams and access to classroom material, may also be granted the same provisions for the various NAPLAN tests. Please note the provisions vary depending on the criteria of the test.

6.2 Adjustments, test requirements and student participation
- 6.2.2. Adjustments should reflect the kind of support and assistance provided for assessment in the classroom in order for students to demonstrate what they know and can do, noting that adjustments that are appropriate in a learning environment may not be appropriate in an assessment environment.

From the Handbook for Principals NAPLAN 2015 (pg 10)

A Parent/Carer Consent for Disability Adjustments has been mailed to all Year 9 students this week who currently receive Disability Provisions for Exams. Please complete and return the consent form to Student Services by Friday 1 May 2015. If you have a child in Year 7 who previously received Disability Provisions or was Withdrawn or Exempt from the tests in Year 5, could you please contact either Elizabeth Mason or myself on 49570132 as soon as possible.

Word Challenge Fundraising Dinner
On 24 March, parents and challengers of the 2015 Year 10 Expedition to South East Asia gathered for a fundraising dinner at Le Dynasty, Vietnamese Restaurant, Darby Street. The company was sensational, the food delicious and a much needed $692.00 was raised for project work in Vietnam and Borneo. Thanks to Joanne Crosbie and Cavelle for their hard work in making the night a reality.

Religious Studies Coordinator

MobileMuster
MobileMuster is the only not-for-profit government accredited mobile phone recycling program funded voluntarily by handset manufacturers and carriers. It’s the industry’s commitment to product stewardship to stop old handsets from becoming landfill and to reduce the demand on the planets valuable resources. Everything will be recycled in a safe, secure and ethical way. Please bring any unused phones to Student Services for recycling.

Cheerleading
Any current or ex-students who wish to sell their second hand Cheer uniforms or shoes, please put them in a bag and staple a list to the outside including your name, sizes and prices. This can be then given to Miss Mohr in the Chisholm office.

Amanda Mohr
Chisholm House Coordinator

Wellbeing
Starting in Week 3 the staff will be organising an early morning fitness session for students. The session will run on a Tuesday morning from 7.50am until 8.30am. The theme will change each week ranging from boot camp, to yoga, to fitness for winter team sports – hope to promote healthy choices, a positive outlook and relaxation. Students will be notified on the Student Notices each Friday of the theme for the following week, and will need to sign up on a Monday at the afternoon tea break, in the Chisholm office. Numbers are limited so get in quickly!

Amanda Mohr
Chisholm House Coordinator

Recognition of Positive Behaviour
Bronze Award applications went out to all students through Care Group at the end of last term. All students are encouraged to take up the challenge and be rewarded for demonstrating a high standard of classroom behaviour, participation and completion of necessary work over the previous term. Students hand in completed applications to their House Coordinator and awards will be given out in Assemblies later this term. 117 students have already submitted their applications. Whilst there is no cut-off date for submission of completed applications, the sooner they are handed in, the sooner students can apply for the next level award.

Blue slips are given to students to acknowledge a range of positive behaviours and performance. When a student collects 5 blue slips they are invited to register them with their House Coordinator who will generate a Student Coordinator Award to be presented during an Assembly.

Mandy Willis
Fahey House Coordinator
Year 10 Careers Excursion
Year 10 students will attend The Newcastle, Lake Macquarie Career and Training Expo to be held on Thursday 21 May 2015 at the Newcastle Jockey Club, Broadmeadow. This event will host many major employers from Newcastle and Sydney, TAFE and Universities from across the state. This is an excellent opportunity for students to speak with these organisations about career pathways, degree programs, courses and employment prospects.

The total cost for the event is $15.00. Information and permission slips have been given to students. Parents can also access the excursion information via the school website and copies are available at Student Services.

Pastoral Care News
Well what a week we have had. So many stories of trials and difficulties here and abroad, then more about the resilience of those in our community as they really did, “weather the storms”, our own school included. As I write this it seems that those in the Maitland area are still cleaning up and preparing for a return to some sort of normality.

What I noticed is that social media showed a particular usefulness and allowed friends to be easily connected, following each other’s stories, keeping in touch, and offering one another assistance and support. For some it became a real lifeline as they struggled alone with family members away and oblivious to the drama we were experiencing.

So who do we follow? When challenged we are often pushed to think harder and source what we need and look further afield, and following an ideology or group can help. The community of our parish and extended friendship group can and is a welcome friend in difficult times.

Remember that these times of difficulty and change can affect us and there is nothing wrong with seeking assistance or advice. In fact in the great Aussie supportive spirit, we are only too willing to lend a hand to one another.

For those needing particular support remember to access those local services available to us.

These include:
Your local parish church community
LifeLine: Counselling Ph: 131114
Catholic Care: Counselling and assistance 49791120
For those with substantial damage to their homes there is assistance available through the Dept of Human Services. www.humanservices.gov.au
Our brothers and sister in Nepal: Caritas have already sent aid to Nepal, where the biggest earthquake in 80 years happened on Saturday. Approximately 2000 people are either dead or missing including many Australians.

Remembering those who are suffering in Nepal, including our missing fellow Australians, we can donate at www.caritas.org.au. Just $14.00 can provide a tent which will accommodate up to three families.

Go gently and smile.

Whooping Cough (Pertussis)

What is whooping cough?
Whooping cough can be a life threatening infection in babies. Whooping cough in babies can lead to apnoea (pauses in normal breathing), pneumonia, feeding problems and weight loss, seizures, brain damage and, in some cases, death. Older children and adults can get whooping cough too and pass it on to babies.

What are the symptoms?
- Whooping cough usually begins like a cold with a blocked or runny nose, tiredness, mild fever and a cough.
- The cough gets worse and severe bouts of uncontrollable coughing can develop. Coughing bouts can be followed by vomiting, choking or taking a big gasping breath which causes a “whooping” sound. The cough can last for many weeks and can be worse at night.
- Some newborns may not cough at all but they can stop breathing and turn blue. Some babies have difficulties feeding and can choke or gag.
- Older children and adults may just have a cough that lasts for many weeks. They may not have the whoop.

How is it spread?
- Whooping cough is spread when an infectious person coughs bacteria into the air which can be inhaled by people nearby. If they are not treated early, people with whooping cough are infectious in the first three weeks of their illness.
- Whooping cough spreads easily through families, childcare centres and at school.

Who is at risk?
- Anyone can get whooping cough. People living in the same household as someone with whooping cough are especially at risk.
- Immunisation reduces the risk of infection but immunity fades over time. You can still get whooping cough even if you’ve been immunised.

How is it prevented?
Whooping cough vaccines provide good protection from infection but immunity fades which means that boosters are needed.

Immunisation for babies
- Babies need to be immunised at 2 months, 4 months and 6 months. The first dose can be given as early as 8 weeks of age.
- Getting your baby vaccinated on time gives them some protection when they are most at risk of severe illness.
- If your baby’s vaccines are overdue, see your GP now to catch up.

Last updated: 30 March 2015
Immunisation for older children

- A whooping cough booster is needed at 4 years of age.
- Check if your child has been vaccinated. Look at their Blue Book, speak to your GP or ring the Australian Childhood Immunisation Register on 1800 653 809.
- A second whooping cough booster is given in high school through the NSW School-based Vaccination Program.

Immunisation for adults

A booster for adults is recommended for:

- Women who are in the third trimester of pregnancy, preferably at 28 weeks. Free vaccine is provided in NSW through GPs and hospital antenatal clinics.
- Other adult household members, grandparents and carers of infants under 12 months of age.
- Adults working with young children, especially health care and child care workers.

If you are a close contact of someone with whooping cough:

- If you have been exposed to someone with whooping cough early in their illness while they are infectious, watch out for symptoms and see your doctor if you get a new cough.
- Some babies and some pregnant women need antibiotics to prevent whooping cough infection if they have had significant contact with an infectious person.

How is it diagnosed?

Your doctor may ask about your symptoms and whether there you've had any contact with whooping cough. If your doctor thinks you have whooping cough, a swab from the back of the nose or throat can confirm the diagnosis.

How is it treated?

- Some babies may need treatment in hospital or in intensive care.
- Antibiotics are used to treat whooping cough in the early stages and can help prevent spreading whooping cough to others. People who are not treated early with the right antibiotics can spread the infection in the first 3 weeks of their illness. After 5 days of antibiotics, you are normally no longer infectious.
- The cough often continues for many weeks, despite antibiotics.

What is the public health response?

Doctors and laboratories must confidentially notify cases of pertussis to the local Public Health Unit. Public Health Unit staff can advise on the best way to stop further spread.

Infectious children are restricted from going to pre-school and school. Unimmunised contacts may be excluded from child care unless they take the special antibiotics.

Identify - Protect – Prevent

For further information please call your local Public Health Unit on 1300 066 055 or visit the New South Wales Health website www.health.nsw.gov.au

Second-Hand Uniforms

A large number of parents/carers have expressed the need to have second-hand uniforms available. St Pius X High School runs a service which enables all parents to buy/sell second-hand uniform items. The service works in the following way:

1. Parents/carers fill out a form with the details of the item/s required to buy/sell and supply a contact number. This form will be available from reception, or alternatively you may email your details to: admin@adamstownsp.catholic.edu.au.

2. These details are then advertised in a special “Second-Hand Uniform” section of each newsletter.

3. The advertisement will run for one month or two editions of the newsletter.

4. Parents/carers will simply contact the number supplied and deal directly with the person buying/selling.

Please note that no second-hand uniform items will be kept by St Pius X High School.

For any further information regarding Second-Hand Uniforms, please contact reception.
