

St Pius X High School Privacy Policy

1. The school and the Diocese, both independently and through its Schools, collect personal information about pupils and parents or guardians before and during the course of a pupil's enrolment at the school. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the school to provide schooling for your son/daughter.
2. The school and the CSO are bound by the Australian Privacy Principles (APPS) contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988. In relation to health records, the CSO is also bound by the Health Privacy Principles contained in the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002.
3. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the school's legal obligations, particularly to enable the school to discharge its duty of care.
4. Certain laws governing or relating to the operation of schools require that certain information be collected. These include Public Health and Child Protection laws.
5. Health information about pupils is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act. We ask you to provide medical reports about pupils from time to time.
6. The school from time to time discloses personal and sensitive information to others for administrative and educational purposes. This includes to other schools, Government Departments, Catholic Schools' Office, the Catholic Education Commission, your local diocese and the Parish, schools within other dioceses, medical practitioners, and people providing services to the school, including specialist visiting teachers, sports' coaches, volunteers and counsellors.
7. If we do not obtain the information referred to above we may not be able to continue the enrolment of your son/daughter.
8. Personal information collected from pupils is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, pupil activities and other news is published in school newsletters and magazines.
9. Parents may seek access to personal information collected about them and their son/daughter by contacting the school. Pupils may also seek access to personal information about them. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include those where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the school's duty of care to the pupil, or where pupils have provided information in confidence.
10. As you may know the school occasionally engages in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. It may also be disclosed to organizations that assist in the school's fundraising activities solely for that purpose. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
11. We may include your contact details in a Class List and School Directory.
12. If you provide the school with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the school and why. Assure them that the school does not usually disclose the information to third parties.
